

Teaching with Poll Everywhere

Poll Everywhere (PE) is an online polling platform that allows participants to vote on custom created polls through a combination of devices. Sharing the results with the class builds community and helps students check their own understanding. Listed below are some practices to consider while using PE:

Opening Activities for Student Engagement -

DePaul University (n.d.). Polling. Accessed August 1, 2022

<https://resources.depaul.edu/teaching-commons/teachingguides/technology/Pages/poll-everywhere.aspx>

Rich, J. (2017, December 14). Polling Students to Check Understanding. Accessed August 1, 2022

<https://www.edutopia.org/article/polling-students-check-understanding>

Prepared by VITAL, Villanova University, August 2022