

In-Person Class Observation Log

(Developed by G. Bauer, Ph.D., VITAL, Villanova University based on instrument developed at University of Maryland, 1987)

Faculty: _____

Course: _____

Observer: _____

Class Session Topic: _____

Length of Visit: _____

Observation Date: _____

Complete this form during the in-class observation. Assume a student perspective rather than content expert. Be as specific and objective as you can.

Class Observation Notes (note what you observe)	Worked Well, Suggestions for Enhancement
Goals for Student Learning From a student's perspective, what did you take away from this class session? What did you learn because of this session?

Method of Instruction

Comment on the presentation of the course material and how the teaching method supported student learning – organization (introduction, main points, summary), presentation style, use of examples, explanations,

Class Observation Notes (note what you observe)

Worked Well, Suggestions for Enhancement

Feedback / Assessment